Biosecurity: Calving Season Considerations

With guest speaker

Dr. Tamara Quashnick zoetis

Calving season can be enough of a challenge without having to worry about diseases, so how do you reduce your biosecurity risk?

Join VBP+ and special guest Dr. Tamara Quashnick as we discuss the importance of understanding biosecurity risks, how they present themselves this time of year, and ways to plan for optimal herd health. This webinar will provide an overview of good management practices for biosecurity at calving time and throughout the year.
